

Jasmin Santanen

Shimmering Dream

Spring / Summer 2011 Ready-to-Wear and Couture

In her Spring / Summer 2011 collection, Jasmin Santanen is inspired by the works of the late, renowned Italian director — Federico Fellini. Reflecting on the plethora of female characters, she introduces, through a similar kaleidoscope, ‘Fellinienne’ humour as well as a sincere passion and desire for the many changing moods of a woman’s life.

Light and airy cotton dresses of exclusively designed fabrics by Jasmin have pixel, framed orchid portraits, which evoke filmstrips and photographic images. Youthful, yet elegant silhouettes highlight the ‘Couture’ knowledge of Jasmin with subtle details. Gathered, ruffled, printed or added lace celebrates the carefree spirit of women and the insouciant feel of a soft, Italian summer.
